Conditions in local business circles generally were fair during the week, with collections reported good for the ason of the year. In many lines of mercantile business, special sales were in progress in anticipation of the opening of the fall trade. With the vaca-tion season at its height and the weather still keeping warm, it was only to be expected that trade, outside the staple lines, would be light.

Commercial stocks and bonds held firm during the week. There was a good demand for Western Idaho Sugar good demand for Western Idaho Sugar options on the $1,800,000 balance of stock, prices ranging around $11.15 to $11.25. All of the $800,000 of stock of the Idaho Sugar company has been bought in by stockholders, and the stock advanced on the Idaal market from $12.90 to $13.25. All of the $190,000 stock of the Consolidated Wagon & Machine company also was taken by the stockholders. Amalgamated Sugar the stockholders. Amalgamated Sugar was in good demand around $101.50. Stock of the Sanpete & Sevier Sugar company, which was incorporated Friday with $1,000,000 captail paid in, is already held at a premium.

The real estate market was quiet. There was considerable inquiry for property, but few sales of importance were made. Dealers regard the present duliness as not discouraging and are looking forward to a splendid revival in the fall,

ROOSEVELT HAS SUMMER QUIET BEEN CONVERTED

Winter.

THE WHITE HOUSE.

(Special to The Herald.) Washington, Aug. 19 .- Now that President Roosevelt has vielded on the question of the revision of the tariff, titude he will take during the coming session of congress on that other vital question which is before the country namely, the regulation of railroad freight rates. It is stated on very reliable authority that the president has abandoned the idea of securing tariff revision and his views on the question have undergone considerable modification. The president was as emphatic earlier in the recess of congress on the question of tariff revision as he was on the railroad rate legislation, and it is argued if he allowed his backbone to weaken on the one question he is to weaken on the one question he is likely to do so on the other.

They Accept Favors. There is scarcely a member of congress who during the present recess has not been or will not be the recipient of "courtesies" from the railroad ompanies in the matter of free trans portation; so it has been also with portation; so it has been also with nearly every person holding a prominent place in the government service. Free transportation "courtesies" have also been liberally extended to members of the press generally. In addition this, the railroads have maintained an efficient bureau to disseminate intermedian efficient of the programment. ate information, statistics and litera-ture favorable to their side of the question. They have as far as possible eliminated the rate regulation question from politics, and the most strenuous efforts on the part of the railroad companies have been in the direction of convincing the south that it would not be to its interest at this time to place the regulation of freight rates absolutely in the hands of the government. All of this will be bound to have an effect which will be manifested when congress again assembles, and if any rallway rate legislation is secured it can be looked upon as a certainty that it will not be seriously inimical to the railroads.

Hint of Revolt.

It is possible, during the coming session of congress, that there will be a revolt in the house against the one-man power of the speaker. Mr. Can-non has announced broadly that he will not allow any tariff revision legiswill not allow any tariff revision legis-lation during the next session of con-gress. It is predicted, however, should there be a revoit it would not seriously endanger the power of the speaker, who under the present rules has au-thority to name the committees, and in doing this he has the opportunity to define the limits of a new member's usefulness, and for this reason the new member is rendered amenable to discipline.

Suicide of Criswell.

There has been much comment here over the suicide of Robert W. Criswell, editor of the New Yorker, who recently was held by the grand jury on a charge of criminal libel, in which the names of friends of Miss Alice Roosevelt figured prominently. Criswell had a long and varied career in newspaper work throughout the United States. He was the original humorist of the Oil City Derrick, and attracted of the Oil City Derrick, and attracted wide notice for the pithy articles he wrote for that paper. About a year ago he secured an interest in the New Yorker, which had been established five years before by a Tammany politician. Criswell changed the character of the paper and ran it on the lines of Town Topics. He wrote bitterly and savagely, and was called upon for quently for retraction and apologies. He was evidently of too fine a fibre for the work he was doing, and while he managed to get out of personal difficulties, he could not make peace with his own conscience, and to stop its tor-tures he took his own life.

Operations on a large scale by the army are impossible at present, and the situation will be unchanged for the next fortnight or three weeks.

The rains in Manchuria have been unusually heavy and prolonged this summer. The country is now a swama and the roads are so soft that attempts Judge Lampman, in committing Colto move artillery and heavy transports would be out of the question. There were many heavy rains in June and lins for extradition, said he could not entertain the prisoner's contentions that perjury was not an extraditable offense, that the affidavit because of which perjury was charged was not a necessary one, that the superior court at San Francisco had no jurisdiction in the maintenance action in which the perjury was made, or the deposition and documents sent from San Francisco were not sufficiently authenticated. The defense had relief much upon a contention that the oath was were many heavy rains in June and July and the rainy season began in earnest about the middle of July. During the first three weeks there was almost a continual downpour, and the streams are swollen, making traffic very difficult.

The army is in better condition than the army is in better condition than ever before for work. The health of the troops throughout the summer has been kept at a high standard, and the percentage of sickness has been far below that of the same period last

Unceasing Practice.

The army's energies have been devoted to transporting munitions, building bridges, making roads and unceasing target practice by the artillery and infantry, whenever the weather permitted. From the sound of firing within the Japanese lines for many days it was thought that a battle was progressing.

Whatever opinion the Japanese military staff entertains regarding the Evidence Against Him.

It was at variance with that of all other witnesses and J. J. Groom, court clerk of San Francisco, had sworn that the endorsement of the names George D. Collins and Charlotta Collins on the back of the marriage certificate was in Collins' handwriting. It, was not alleged that he was one of the many alleged conspirators and it was remarkable, if Collins had then married Agnes Newman, as he alleged, that he should write the name of her sister Charlotta on the wedding certificate. The evidence was sufficient to warrant that the prisoner be extradited and it was his duty to notify the accused that he whatever opinion the Japanese mus-tary staff entertains regarding the probabilities of peace, it has made all preparations to continue the war.

The bank had over 3,000 depositors, whose savings deposits aggregated $1,400,000, and there were also cheeking accounts aggregating several hundred thousand dollars before the run.

In the petitlen for a receivership it is charged that over $300,000 had been loaned to Leonard B. Imboden and associates on securities of doubtful value. The officers of the bank today filled an answer to the petition denying that the loans complained of were made on flectitious securities. The Bank of North America, of New York, holds 1,400 shares, a majority of the bank's stock, as security for a loan of $90,000. These shares stand on the bank's books in the name of C. B. Wilfley, but in reality, it is said, were controlled by Imboden. Mr. Wilfley has stated that he never purchased or had any legal title to this stock. J. A. Hill, president of the bank, who is said to have represented the Imboden interests, is absent in the east.
